

Fall Crop Seeding Guide
	Start Indoors	Transplant Out	Direct Seed	Notes
Beets			Mid July - Mid August	For mature beets, plant early. Tender baby beets, plant later
Broccoli	Late June - Early July	Late July
Brussels Sprouts	Early April	Early June
Cabbage	Mid - Late June	Mid - Late July
Carrots			Early - Late July	Napoli Carrot is a great cold tolerant variety.
Cauliflower	Mid - Late June	Mid - Late July
Celery	Mid April	Mid June
Celeriac	Late March	Late May
Fennel			Mid July
Greens			Late July - Early Sept
Kale	Mid - Late June	Mid - Late July	June	Direct sow densely in early August for baby greens
Kohlrabi	Early July	Early August	Late July
Leeks	Mid April	Early - Mid June
Lettuce (baby leaf)			Early - Late August
Lettuce (head)			Late July - Early August
Onions			Mid July
Parsnips			Mid - Late May
Peas			Late June
Radish			Late August
Rutabaga			Early July
Spinach			Early August - Mid Sept
Swiss Chard			Late July - Mid August
Turnips			Late July - Mid August

Both succession planting and various crop protection techniques (cold frames, hoop tunnels) can extend your vegetable gardening season well into the fall if not all year round. Extending your season is a great way to continue to harvest fresh healthy food throughout the season.